

RIVAL TO RUSSIAN LINE.

Hamburg-American Ships to Compete for Emigrants to This Country.

HAMBURG, June 24.—The Hamburg-American Line intends starting in July a service between Libau and Dover and New York in competition with the Russian line of vessels of the Volunteer Fleet, which will inaugurate its service with the sailing from Libau Aug. 8 of the steamer Smolensk.

It is said that Russia is trying to control the emigration traffic, and that if the new Volunteer Fleet line is a success, this traffic no longer will go to the same extent by way of Hamburg and Bremen.

Rival to Russian Line

Clipped By:
C_St_Reed
Mar 4, 2025